Red Tape Challenge!

The Government has asked, sport, heritage, gambling and lottery industries to name and shame the regulations that are holding back their businesses. Industries will get their chance for the next three weeks to name and shame the regulations they want to see scrapped, through an easy-to-access website. For more information visit the Resources section of the website.

Members can follow the link below and make a direct response, or contact the Association and raise issues they would like put forward
